

I firmly oppose the desire of the Consumer Banker's Association to make telemarketing calls to registrants of the do not call list in Indiana. These telemarketing practices are far too invasive and I feel that the protection offered by the Do Not Call list is invaluable.